

Yuvamanthan: The discussion platform for the Indian Youth*

Who we are?

This space is created by the youth and for the youth of today. It is specifically dedicated to the young, ambitious and action-loving youth of India.

We at Yuvamanthan believe that India is a land of tradition and innovation that mixes well with the impressionable minds of today's youth.

Did you know that India has the largest youth concentration in the world with almost 430 million citizens in the age group of 16-35 years. Talk about national pride, right?

As youngsters today are more inclined towards Social Awareness, Freedom of Change and Digital Transformation, we are here to provide a platform that gives them the voice to make a credible impact in society.

What we do?

The team of Yuvamanthan has planned to create an open platform for youth to start discussions and open communications via multiple channels to connect, contribute and change.

According to recent findings, it is inferred that youngsters who possess diverse qualities like creativity, and logical intellect can have a more positive influence over the masses.

Moreover, these findings have further encouraged in growth and development of certain proactive interventions and initiatives to strengthen youth's capacity to aspire and inspire.

With that in mind, take a look at what we have to offer the youth of today:

- Confidence Building – By actively participating in forum discussions, social media events and collaborative workshops, you will certainly take a giant leap forward in building and developing your confidence.
- Personality Development - Who doesn't like a person who reflects calibre with a strong personality? By being present and active in our daily challenges on youth-centric activities, you are sure to polish your potential towards a better version of yourself.
- Awareness in your Pocket – Thanks to the ongoing digital revolution, becoming more alert about the current happenings is no more a task. Youngistaan tribe too will have access to all the latest updates around the nation on various headlines to maintain a sense of awareness.
- Speakers of Tomorrow – As a youth of today it is important to voice your opinion on matters that have national relevance. With our association, you will experience live debates, mock summit sessions and more to inspire the speaker within to start the dialogue.
- Social Storytelling – We believe there's a story in every bit of thought you think, a word you speak. With us, you get to choose and showcase your story via multiple social media platforms like IG, FB, Twitter, Snapchat, etc.

All in all, we at Yuvamanthan are just mere engines but with you as our drivers, together we can create a global community that creates and shares a voice that matters.

Trending Topics

This space will be dedicated to exceptional talking topics that cater to youth's interests. If the idea of the community is to provide a forum, then here we will have topics and explanations that would allow members to participate and engage freely and actively.

Some of the mock topics with few starting points to break the ice for forum discussion that is as follows.

Cyber Safety

- 1 out of 5 young people has experienced cyber trolling or abuse online.
- Almost 95% of young people say they feel safe online while around 4.2 million users have experienced hateful speech and bullying online.

If these facts are to be believed, then how far is the narrative of having great cyber security measures justified?

Post-Pandemic Culture

- Almost 1/3 of the Indians faced joblessness or remote working due to Covid19.
- Entire corporate structure suffered massive financial and labour loss in only 3 months under Covid lockdowns
- Post-Pandemic, remote working set-up, mental stress and lifestyle challenges have received some traction

G20 in India

As India bags the 2023 G20 presidency, there are a wide array of socio-political, financial and economic agendas that will take centre stage.

- Digital Transformation
- Sustainable transformation
- Startup India
- One Earth, One Family, One Future – the theme of G20

Youth can take up various G20-related issues as debate topics or mock summit simulations to address these matters and form creative solutions for the Leader's meet.

Education For All

As education is the foremost necessity for every individual, there are about 1.5 million illiterates in the country. With the government having initiated new schemes and laws in the scope of educational enrichment, why is illiteracy still looming over the country?

Women's Empowerment

There's nothing a woman can't do or be, that is the time old reiterated quote. However, even today, they are prohibited from growing and having a flourishing life for themselves.

Names like Falguni Nayar (Nykaa), Priyanka Chopra Jonas, and Indra Nooyi (PepsiCo) have laid a formidable example for young females across the country to empower their lives and become more than a household existence. So, how are we doing to strengthen the narrative of women's empowerment?
